

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

English as a Scientific and Research Language

Saturday, December 1st

8.30 • Registration

8.45 • Conference opening

Carmen PÉREZ-LLANTADA (Universidad de Zaragoza, Spain)

9.00-11.00 • Discourses of English as a lingua franca

Chair: Chryso HADJIDEMETRIOU (University of Sheffield, UK)

Mariana NICOLAE and Laura MURESAN (University of Economics, Bucharest, Romania)
*The challenge of publishing internationally in a non-Anglophone academic context.
Romania - a case in point*

Siân PREECE (Institute of Education, University of London, UK)
English in the academy: Monolingual ethos/ multilingual population

Joanna LEWIŃSKA (Wszechnica Polska, Warsaw, Poland)
Teaching English as a lingua franca in multilingual academic environment

Enric LLURDA, Josep María COTS, Lurdes ARMENGOL and Guzmán MANCHO
(Universitat de Lleida, Spain)
English and the discourses of internationalisation in higher education in the expanding circle

11.00-11.45 • Plenary lecture

Chair: Ramón PLO (Universidad de Zaragoza, Spain)

John M. SWALES (University of Michigan, US)
“Devil is in the details”: Under-noticed aspects of research writing in English

11.45-12.00 • Coffee break

12.00-14.00 • English language hegemony vs. minority national languages:
Challenges and threats

Chair: Anna Kristina HULTGREN (University of Copenhagen, Denmark)

Branka DRLJAČA MARGIĆ and Tea ŽEŽELIĆ (University of Rijeka, Croatia)

Attitudes of Croatian native speakers towards the Idea of introducing English-medium higher education

Sonia OLIVER DEL OLMO (Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona, Spain)

Spanish authors dealing with hedging or the challenges of scholarly publication in English L2

Jennifer SCHLUER (University of Kassel, Germany)

English as a lingua franca in linguistics? A case study of German linguists' language use in publications

Carmen PIQUÉ-NOGUERA (Universitat de València, Spain)

Spanish publications in the world seen through their English abstracts

14.00-15.00 • Lunch

15.00-17.00 • The publish in English or perish dilemma

Chair: Christian JENSEN (University of Copenhagen, Denmark)

Laura MURESAN, Mirela BARDI and Mariana NICOLAE (University of Economics, Bucharest, Romania)

Academics' interests vs publishing realities and institutional frameworks

Claus GNUTZMANN and Frank RABE (Technische Universität Braunschweig, Germany)

Publish in English or perish in German? Academic writing and publishing in English as a Foreign Language

Ruth BREEZE (Universidad de Navarra, Spain)

Citing outside the community? An investigation of the language of bibliography in top journals

Alexandra Anca CODREANU (University of Bucharest, Romania)

Dealing with peer reviewing: Three case studies

17.00-17.45 • Plenary talk

Chair: Pilar MUR-DUEÑAS (Universidad de Zaragoza, Spain)

Ana BOCANEGRA-VALLE (Universidad de Cádiz, Spain)

Publish in English or perish in academia. The case of a JCR-indexed multilingual journal

17.45-18.00 • Coffee break

18.00-19.30 • Academic ELF: A linguistic perspective

Chair: Tamah SHERMAN (Charles University, Prague, Czech Republic)

Alejandro CURADO (Universidad de Cáceres, Spain)

Relative frequencies of academic phraseology for writing in the ELF scope

Geneviève BORDET (Paris University, Paris VII, France)

Cohesive use of the anaphoric “this” in abstracts written by native and non-native English writers

Francesca SANTULLI (Università IULM – Milano, Italy)

Diglossia and the lexicon of science: English terminologies in Italian web-mediated communication

21.00 • DINNER

SUNDAY, December 2nd

9.00-11.00 • Academic English. Comparison across areas of the world

Chair: Jiri NEKVAPIL (Charles University, Prague, Czech Republic)

Olga DONTCHEVA-NAVRATILOVA (Masaryk University, Brno, Czech Republic)

Cross-cultural variation in citation practices: A comparative analysis of Czech and English linguistics research articles

Renata POVOLNÁ (Masaryk University, Brno, Czech Republic)

Cross-cultural variation in the use of some text-organizing devices in research articles

Maria KUTEEVA and Lisa MCGRATH (Stockholm University, Sweden)

Communicating health issues across European society: A case study of an EU agency

Ignacio VÁZQUEZ (group leader) INTERLAE research group (Universidad de Zaragoza, Spain)

A cross-cultural and cross-linguistic perspective of Spanish academics publishing practices

11.00-11.45 • Plenary talk

Chair: Rosa LORÉS (Universidad de Zaragoza, Spain)

Karen BENNETT (Universidade de Coimbra, Portugal)

Epistemicide in modern academia: Beyond discourse

11.45-12.00 • Coffee break

12.00-14.00 • The teaching of English for Academic Purposes and academic literacies

Chair: Zoi TATSIOKA (CITY College, Thessaloniki, Greece)

Silvia MOLINA (Universidad Politécnica de Madrid, Spain)

Teaching advising and requesting in EU fisheries discourse to naval engineering students. An overview

Mateusz SARNECKI (University of Warsaw, Poland)

Authorial self-reference in academic writing textbooks

Miguel RUIZ-GARRIDO and Juan Carlos PALMER (Universitat Jaume I, Castelló, Spain)

Comparative and superlative constructions from a multimodal approach

Sherry WARREN (University of South Carolina, US)

Establishing a unified definition of academic literacy and a method for measuring academic readiness

14.00 • Conference closing

Andrew LINN, Research group leader of the 'English in Europe: Opportunity or threat?' Project (University of Sheffield, UK)

14.15 • Lunch

CONFERENCE VENUE

Hotel Alfonso

Calle Coso 15 – 17 – 19

CP 50003 Zaragoza (Spain)

Teléfono: +34 876 54 11 18

Fax: +34 876 54 11 19

E-mail: hotelalfonso@palafoxhoteles.com